HERE'S THE LOWDOWN:

Queen Candidates are lovingly encouraged to make themselves available the weekend before the Ball to help promote the Ball and themselves.

There are three parts to the Rutabaga Queen Pageant:

Part 1- Ball Gown: Wear your fanciest finery. Be ready to answer questions. What questions? Wouldn't you like to know...

Part 2 – Bay Crossing: "Swim Suit": OK so you don't have to get in a swim suit and prance around in front of the Kinetic Universe (unless you want to), but what would you wear during the fabulous Bay Crossing on Day 2 of the Kinetic Grand Championship?

Part 3 – Who's got Talent?: You are welcome to interpret this whatever way you choose, but please show the world some side of your wonderful Queenliness. This is where the term "Glory Hog" comes into play. However, this is NOT a derogatory term, it is a compliment and a way of life in the Kinetic Universe. We gently suggest you limit your talent to three minutes, max, because we know you can impress us quicker than that.

Bribing is strongly encouraged throughout the Kinetic Universe, but particularly during the Rutabaga Queen Pageant! There will likely be 8 judges (we'll tell you exactly how many judges a few weeks before the Ball) and two MC's, not to mention countless other Rutabaga Queens and assorted Kinetic bigwigs. You may want to prepare bribes for 10 or 12, just in case. You will have 3 official bribing rounds, but you could always do more. After all, you ARE a Queen who thinks of everything. (What is a bribe, you might ask. Anything that bestows glory onto the judges and others.)

YES! You need to work hard to be the esteemed Rutabaga Queen!
